M - 8,996

FEB 13 1970

Big Brother In The Snooping Business

The weekly newsletter circulated among newspaper subscribers to UPI carried message from Vice-President and Editor Roger Tatarian which is worth reproducing:

"In the 1960s, it was the campaign of the bar associations to restrict court coverage that occupied journalistic meetings. and publications. In the 1970s, it of government to turn the press into a sort of Trojan Horse for its own purposes.

"That may be a case of overreaction and overstatement. Indeed, I hope it turns out to be just that. But there are disturbing implications nevertheless in two items in the news: this week:

Panther party, and (2) all notes, correspondence, memoranda and ers in some foreign capitals. records of telephone calls made Day speech Nov. 15.

from a publishing service, had been issued press cards by the might be. U.S. high command. The agents been 'admonished.'

dismiss the latter episode as one interest." of those things if there were any assurance that it had never is that once the gates are down, there can be no acceptable into the sacred door of press assurance in an area where freedom, in the name of national So all we have for sure is con- will become the big - and we firmation that this particular mean big - loser. effort to use the press as a cover for something else failed.

"The notion that the American press corps abroad is infested "CBS was served with a federal with CIA and other agents is court subpoena demanding that firmily held in many foreign it produce for a grand jury in- countries. This confirmation that vestigation (1) both the used and a U.S. agency did indeed try to unused portions of films made plant its operatives in the press for a program on the Black corps is not going to make life any easier for American report-

"In the CBS case, it is the scope in arranging the program. The of the subpoena that causes material sought included an concern. Put in terms of a interview filmed in Algeria with newspaper, the issue is whether Eldridge Cleaver, the fugitive a reporter should be compelled Black Panther leader. The grant to make public more than he feels jury, sitting in San Francisco, is proper, and, specifically, whether considering the case of a Panther he should be forced to release accused of threatening the life material which he may have of the President in a Moratorium obtained in confidence or on an off-the-record basis. There may "It was disclosed in Saigon that or may not be confidential agents, using material in the CBS dossier. The fraudulent letters of accreditation point is that the subpoena does not even recognize that there

"When people involved in controversy speak to reporters now, they do so with some measure of trust. They accept the reporter as an agent of the regular press corps to determine public-at-large. The danger here whether and how reporters got is that unrestricted use of the information that had not been subpoena can begin to give issued officially. It must be stated newsmen the image of being that the U.S. high command itself agents of a different kind. The disclosed the story with the resultant suspicion would reduce statement saying those who the contacts a reporter could accredited the phony agents had make in his search for information and would, in the long "It would not be difficult to run, work only against the public may turn out to be the efforts happened before. Unfortunately, once Big Brother gets that foot deception is the mark of success. interest or whatever — the public had planned to mingle with the Approved For Release 2004/09/03 : CIA-RDP88-01314R000300240030-4